July 25, 2018

Parents/Guardians,

Welcome to the 2018-2019 school year! I hope that you all have had a peaceful and relaxing summer. We are excited to enter the new school year and hear the joy and laughter from our students as well as seeing new gym shoes on the playground. As we are ever evolving, we will continue to be politely relentless in our efforts to raise test scores, decrease behavioral incidents, and continue what has become our legacy of excellence. The first day of school is Friday, August 17, 2018, beginning with our traditional back to school parade, where we will feature the "Jesse White Tumblers and Proviso East Marching Band." We are committed to one-to-one learning opportunities for our children, and will continue through the utilization of iPads and Chromebooks.

I am personally resolute to lead the district to a new level of success, which is enveloped in unlimited opportunities and unlimited potential. Because of the proven dedication and commitment from our Board of Education, administration, teachers, staff, parents, and the community, success is imminent. Our focus continues to be placed on literacy, as we know that this is the foundation of all learning. It is an honor and absolute privilege to work with a team that is aware of the magnitude of this endeavor, the impact of reaching our collective goals, and its effect on future generations. We realize that "It is our reasonable duty to educate ALL children, acting as though it were impossible to fail, and realizing that Good Enough, Never Is."
